THE HOTELITO

Marrying an eclectic sense of modern urban cool with an old school service ethic that anticipates guests' every need, Atemporal is the perfect refuge for discerning travelers interested in exploring contemporary Lima.

Housed in a revamped 1940s mansion in the chic Miraflores district, this nine-room hotelito comes from the same award-winning design team behind Hotel B, in the neighboring district of Barranco, and Titilaka, the boutique lodge on the shores of Lake Titicaca. The informal and relaxed atmosphere breaks down the barriers between visitors and the friendly, knowledgeable staff, making this one-off luxury townhouse a perfect cozy refuge, where guests can decompress and recharge their batteries between adventures in Peru's vibrant capital.

THE INSPIRATION

Atemporal is conceived as the home of a globetrotting freelance photographer. He loves Lima but is rarely home, and ensures that his trusted staff spoil his friends and take special care of his objets. Indeed his majordomo, his personal assistant, cook and chauffeur are on call.
