CONTEMPORARY CIRCUS

A photograph of a man and a young boy working together on a pottery wheel. The man is on the left, leaning over the boy on the right. They are both focused on shaping a piece of clay on the wheel. The man's hands are on the wheel, and the boy's hands are also on the wheel. The background shows a workshop with a stone wall and a wooden horse sculpture. The text "CERAMICS WORKSHOPS" is overlaid in the center of the image.
